WHEREAS the Secretary of State for External Affairs reports as follows:

That the Caribbean Development Bank is desirous of furthering agricultural development in the less developed member countries of the Bank by financing commercial livestock production projects through the establishment of a Special Fund;

That new technologies for producing animal feed from sugar cane have been developed and will be used in the Commercial livestock production projects mentioned above;

That the Bank has requested Canada to contribute to the Special Fund established by the Bank for the purposes described above;

That a contribution in the amount proposed would not impose any additional financial burden on the Government of Canada as it can be paid out of the aid funds approved by Parliament; and

That the External Affairs Special Loan Assistance Vote L35, provides that payments may be made to recognized international development institutions subject to such terms and conditions as the Governor in Council may approve.

THEREFORE, HIS EXCELLENCY THE ADMINISTRATOR IN COUNCIL, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State for External Affairs, is pleased hereby, pursuant to the said External Affairs Vote L35, to authorize a contribution not to exceed $4 million (US) to the Caribbean Development Bank subject to the following terms and conditions:

WHEREAS the Minister of Finance reports as

That section 11 of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act authorizes the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation to borrow moneys from the Government of Canada for the furtherance of its objects which include the making of loans to its member institutions to meet emergency liquidity requirements;

That section 37 of the said Act provides that the Governor in Council may, from time to time, authorize the Minister of Finance to make advances out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the Corporation by way of loans on such terms and conditions as the Governor in Council may determine, but the aggregate of such loans outstanding at any time shall not exceed $500,000,000;

That the Minister of Finance has to date been authorized to advance an aggregate amount of $90,000,000 to the Corporation, $34,750,000 of which has been advanced to and repaid by the Corporation;

That under the present financial climate affecting member institutions of the Corporation, it is possible that one or more member companies may find itself under severe liquidity pressure due to withdrawal of deposits. In such a case the member might have to turn to the Corporation for liquid funds, having exhausted other sources available to it. It would be important that the Corporation have the capacity to respond in amounts adequate to meet the crisis and restore confidence. In view of the amount of demand and short term deposits in member institutions of even moderate size the present approved borrowing capacity of $55,250,000 may not be adequate.

THEREFORE, HIS EXCELLENCY THE ADMINISTRATOR IN COUNCIL, pursuant to section 37 of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, is pleased hereby to authorize the Minister of Finance to advance out of unappropriated moneys in the Consolidated Revenue Fund an additional amount of $200,000,000 to the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation by way of loan, subject to the terms and conditions specified in the schedule hereto.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT MADE THIS 17th DAY OF AUGUST, 1971.

BETWEEN:

THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA, represented by the Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada, hereinafter called the
"Minister",

OF THE FIRST PART;

AND

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES, represented by the Commissioner of the Northwest Territories, hereinafter called the "Commissioner",

OF THE SECOND PART.

WHEREAS, the Parties hereto have resolved to establish a comprehensive legal aid program for the people of the Northwest Territories and to provide for the administration of the program on a shared cost basis;

NOW THEREFORE, this Agreement witnesseth that the Minister and the Commissioner, in consideration of the covenants hereinafter mentioned, agree as follows:

LEGAL AID COMMITTEE

1. (1) The Commissioner shall establish a committee, to be known as the Legal Aid Committee (hereinafter called the "Committee"), to administer the legal aid program in the Northwest Territories as prescribed in this Agreement.
- (2) The Committee shall consist of a chairman who shall be the Legal Adviser to the Territorial Government or such other person, who is an employee of the Territorial Government, as the Commissioner may, from time to time, designate, and two other members, one from among the resident members of the Bar of the Territories nominated by the President of the Northwest Territories Bar Association, and the other member, selected by the Commissioner, who is a resident of the Territories but who is not a member of the legal profession and who is not employed by the Territorial Government or by the Government of Canada.
- (3) The Commissioner shall arrange as soon as possible to fill vacancies on the Committee as they occur.
- (4) The members of the Committee who are not employees of the Territorial Government may be paid remuneration, for time spent in the performance of their duties as members of the Committee, at such rate not exceeding fifty dollars a day as the Commissioner prescribes; and every member of the Committee shall be paid such reasonable travelling and living expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties as members of the Committee as are prescribed by the Commissioner.

- (5) The Committee shall prepare two panels of lawyers consisting of persons who are members of the Bar of the Northwest Territories and who are prepared to act as legal aid counsel; the first panel shall comprise those persons who are resident in the Territories and the second panel shall comprise those persons who are not resident in the Territories.
- (6) The Committee shall assign to persons who apply for legal aid and who qualify therefor legal aid counsel from the first panel in the order in which their names appear thereon, having regard to the nature of the legal services required and the experience and qualifications of the counsel, and with the result that all persons on that panel share the legal aid work among them more or less equally.
- (7) Where there is no person on the first panel who, in the opinion of the Committee, should be assigned as legal aid counsel in a particular matter, the Committee may assign legal aid counsel from the second panel in the order in which their names appear thereon, having regard to the nature of the legal services required and the experience and qualifications of the counsel, and with the result that all persons on that panel share the legal aid work among them more or less equally.

- (8) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, a person who has been charged with an offence mentioned in section 427 of the Criminal Code, chapter C-34 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1970, as a result of which he is subject to be sentenced to death or to imprisonment for life and who qualifies for legal aid, shall be permitted to select his own legal aid counsel from among all the persons who are members of the Bar of the Northwest Territories.
- (9) The Committee shall tax accounts of legal aid counsel and certify them for payment to the Commissioner.
- (10) The Committee may authorize an employee of the Territorial Government, in accordance with such guidelines as the Committee prescribes, to tax and certify accounts of legal aid counsel.

- (11) The Committee may authorize one or more of its members to exercise and perform, in accordance with such guidelines as the Committee prescribes, any of the powers, duties and functions of the Committee under this Agreement.
- (12) Any act or thing required or authorized to be done by the Committee may be done by two members of the Committee.
- (13) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the Committee, with the approval of the Commissioner, may make rules
  - (a) as to the manner in which legal aid shall be made available to the people of the Territories;
  - (b) the calling and conduct of meetings of the Committee; and
  - (c) with reference to any other matter that the Committee considers necessary to carry out and give effect to this Agreement.

LEGAL AID GENERALLY

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, legal aid in both criminal and civil matters shall be made available to every person in the Territories and to every person ordinarily resident in the Territories who, in the opinion of the Committee, cannot afford to retain his own lawyer without depriving himself or his dependents of reasonable necessities or without sacrificing modest capital assets. In determining whether a person can afford to retain his own lawyer, the Committee shall have regard to the financial status of that person, the financial status of the members of his family and any other matter that the Committee considers relevant.

(2) Legal aid provided under this Agreement to any person shall be subject to the following conditions, namely,

(a) where that person recovers any sum in respect of the matter for which legal aid was provided under a judgment, order, settlement or otherwise, an amount equal to the amount of the fees and disbursements paid to the legal aid counsel who acted for that person shall be paid by that person to the Commissioner but, if the sum so recovered by that person is less than the amount of the said fees and disbursements, the full sum so recovered shall be paid by that person to the Commissioner.

(b) where that person recovers property, other than money, an amount equal to the amount of the fees and disbursements paid to the legal aid counsel who acted for that person shall be due and payable by that person to the Commissioner but, if, in the opinion of the Committee, the value of the property so recovered is less than the amount of the said fees and disbursements, an amount equal to the value of the property shall be due and payable by that person to the Commissioner;

(c) where that person is awarded costs in respect of the matter for which legal aid was provided and an amount equal to the amount of the fees and disbursements paid to the legal aid counsel who acted for that person has not been otherwise recovered by the Commissioner, the costs, or so much thereof as required so that the Commissioner will have recovered the amount of the said fees and disbursements, as the case may be, shall be paid to the Commissioner; and

(d) where that person, in the opinion of the Committee, is able to contribute towards the cost of employing legal aid counsel, he shall be required to pay such amount in respect thereof to the Commissioner as the Committee considers appropriate.

LEGAL AID IN CRIMINAL CASES

3. (1) The Committee shall arrange for legal aid counsel to accompany both the Territorial Court and the Magistrate's Court (hereinafter referred to as the "Court") on all circuits where, in the opinion of the Committee, legal aid counsel will be required. Where the Committee does not make such arrangements, the Court may, if the Court considers it necessary, do so on its own initiative.
- (2) Where, in the opinion of the Committee, it is necessary and practical to do so, the Committee shall arrange for legal aid counsel to precede the Court circuit so that counsel can have time to prepare the cases where legal aid is required. Where such arrangements are not made, the legal aid counsel who accompanies the Court may request an adjournment to the next circuit and, if granted, will brief the next legal aid counsel assigned to that case.
- (3) Legal aid shall be provided, subject to this Agreement, in the following matters:
  - (a) where the offence is under a Statute of the Parliament of Canada and is to be proceeded with by indictment;

(b) where the offence is under

- (i) a Statute of the Parliament of Canada,
- (ii) a Regulation made pursuant to a
Statute of the Parliament of Canada,
- (iii) an Ordinance of the Territories, or
- (iv) a Regulation made pursuant to an Ordinance of the Territories,

(c) proceedings under the Juvenile Delinquents Act (or the Young Offenders Act);

(d) where the offence is one not provided for in subparagraph (a), (b) or (c) of this paragraph and, in the opinion of the Committee or the Court, the accused is not capable of making an informed decision as to his proper course of action, or it appears to the Committee or to the Court that the accused may be subject to a sentence of imprisonment or to a penalty that will interfere substantially with his livelihood;

- (e) an appeal where the appeal has been taken by the prosecution;
- (f) an appeal where counsel advises that an appeal by the accused has merit and the Committee agrees; and
- (g) an appeal where the Appeal Court or a judge thereof requests that legal aid be provided to the accused.

FEES FOR LEGAL AID IN CRIMINAL CASES

1. The fees, disbursements and travel and living expenses to be allowed to legal aid counsel shall be as follows:

- (2) Where legal aid is provided in a civil matter, the matter shall not be proceeded with unless the legal aid counsel has supplied the Committee with his written opinion that it is reasonable in all the circumstances for him to commence, defend or continue with the proceeding or matter and the Committee has authorized him to do so.

FEES FOR LEGAL AID IN CIVIL CASES

6. (1) The fees to be allowed to legal aid counsel in any civil matter shall be an amount equal to 75% of the fees that would be taxed or that are taxed by the Court in connection with that matter on a solicitor-client basis. If any question arises as to the fee that should be allowed in any case or class of case, the Commissioner, after consultation with a judge of the Territorial Court, shall determine the question. Reasonable disbursements shall be allowed in full, and reasonable travelling and living expenses, not exceeding those provided by the Territorial Government Travel Regulations, shall be allowed.

(b) $ 37,500.

WHEREAS the Solicitor General reports as follows:

That on November 29, 1971, in Montreal, Quebec, Mr. André Séguin was found guilty of an offence under section 131(1) of the Income Tax Act. On that date he was sentenced to a $25.00 fine and $7.50 costs, or eight days' imprisonment;

That Mr. Séguin was accused of having failed to send to the Department of National Revenue (Taxation Division), as required by the Income Tax Act, a return of his income and the relevant information and documents for the taxation year 1969 within the thirty days following the demand served by registered letter on November 4, 1970;

That an investigation into this case revealed that Mr. Séguin was admitted to the St-Jean-de-Dieu hospital in November, 1971 suffering from Korsakoff's syndrome. According to the doctor who is treating him, there has been a fairly good improvement in Mr. Séguin's mental state, although he is not, and probably never will be, capable of doing any responsible work; and

That the Minister of National Revenue has been consulted and recommends that a remission of the fine be granted in this case.

AND UPON the recommendation for a remission of the fine and costs for a total amount of $32.50 is based on humanitarian reasons and on the fact that Mr. Séguin's state of health will not tolerate a term of imprisonment.

THEREFORE, HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL, on the recommendation of the Solicitor General, is pleased, pursuant to section 685 of the Criminal Code, to order the remission in whole of the fine and costs imposed upon Mr. André Séguin.

Vu le rapport du solliciteur général exposant

Que, le 29 novembre 1971, à Montréal (Québec), M. André Séguin a été reconnu coupable d'une infraction aux termes du paragraphe (1) de l'article 131 de la Loi de l'impôt sur le revenu et condamné à payer une amende de $25 et des frais de $7.50 ou, à défaut de paiement, à huit jours d'emprisonnement;

Que M. Séguin a été accusé d'avoir négligé d'envoyer à la Division de l'impôt du ministère du Revenu national, comme l'exige la Loi de l'impôt sur le revenu, une déclaration de ses revenus pour l'année d'imposition 1969, de même que les renseignements et documents complémentaires, dans les trente jours qui ont suivi la date à laquelle la demande lui en a été délivrée par lettre recommandée, soit le 4 novembre 1970;

Qu'une enquête sur cette affaire a révélé que M. Séguin a été admis à l'hôpital Saint-Jean-de-Dieu en novembre 1971, parce qu'il souffrait de la psychose de Korsakov et que, selon le médecin traitant, M. Séguin n'est pas et ne sera probablement jamais apte à un travail responsable, quel qu'il soit, même si son état mental s'est passablement amélioré; et

Que le ministre du Revenu national a été consulté et recommande qu'une remise d'amende soit accordée dans ce cas;

Et vu que la recommandation d'accorder la remise de l'amende et des frais, lesquels s'élèvent à un montant total de $32.50, se fonde sur des raisons humanitaires et sur le fait que l'état de santé de M. Séguin ne lui permet pas de subir une peine d'emprisonnement:

A ces causes, sur avis conforme du solliciteur général et en vertu de l'article 685 du Code criminel, il plaît à Son Excellence le Gouverneur général en conseil d'ordonner la remise intégrale de l'amende et des frais imposés à M. André Séguin.
